Hi Oliver,

Attached is your professional speech! We are confident that you will find our work to be more than satisfactory. If you see any areas that require clarification or that cause concern, please let us know as soon as possible VIA EMAIL with your instructions/concerns outlined so that we can quickly make the appropriate corrections.

The attached file can be opened with virtually any modern word processing software but should display best with MS WORD. Please note that different printer drivers on different computer platforms may impact formatting/aesthetics slightly. If you need to make any layout or formatting changes, you can do so right from your own screen as the document we've sent is still fully editable.

Please find your speech writer's personal comments at the BOTTOM OF THIS EMAIL - below.

If you paid by credit card, our services will appear on your next statement from EZ Speech Writers / Professional Editing & Speech Writing Services in Orlando, FL from EZ Speech Writers, Inc.

Remember: Our work is GUARANTEED. There is no fee for speech writing corrections according to your original directions of THIS attached document when requested within 30 days of completion. Corrections consist of any grammar, spelling, punctuation, editorial changes, personal details omitted, or mistakes within our final written work. Thus, it does not include rewriting of changes, additions or alterations made by the client after receipt. (That would create a new document and require a new speech.) Rewrites are only available for THIS attached final speech document. Furthermore, all work is based on the instructions and documents you originally provided when your order was placed. Thus, revisions are only provided if the speech does not meet these original instructions provided when ordering.

Please completely review your speech BEFORE distributing, submitting or going to speak. Publishing, printing, submitting or distributing this speech in any format constitutes acceptance and ownership of the written work as your (the author's) own intellectual property. EZSpeechWriters.com can not be held responsible for any resulting publicity, reviews or financial loss from errors discovered after client initiates printing, submission and/or distribution of their personal materials.

If more than 30 days have elapsed or if you'd like a new speech to be made with additional information or a different purpose, a rewrite fee may apply. We will always email you a firm price quote before making any such changes.

We thank you again for allowing us to help you with your endeavor and we do hope that you'll refer your friends, relatives, and colleagues to www.ezspeechwriters.com.

Sincerely,
Customer Relations Dept.
