Job # 16334

Steve enjoys life to the fullest and he appreciated life to the fullest. I have learned a lot about cutting lose and spending money and I just love to hear Steve talk about what bargains he got at the outlet store. Patti, that's all me.

Periodically Patti, you'll buck heads, but it's never personal. Just remember the cab driver part of Steve has never left him. He's just bumping a car to get to his and your destination.

Steve has a saying in business, throw me the ball and get out of my way. He tends to carry that mantra in driving. I'll drive and get out of my way
Steve is really smart, Deep thinker and thoughtful
Cooking wine friendship driving

Patti,

I have a few marriage pointers for you and I would say that I am uniquely qualified. You know Steve and I celebrated our 15 year anniversary not too long ago. I know most if not all of Steve's idiosyncrasies.

I'd like to begin by letting you know how special you are. Steve has interviewed a lot of women and you are the one who made the cut.

Be careful when Steve comes out of the shower

I only say that because when Steve has an idea or an epiphany, it goes like this. He walks into my office and sits down and says, you won't believe what I thought of this morning while I was taking a shower.

One day Steve and I walked into a restaurant and I went to use the restroom. The Mater de asked Steve a table for two? Steve replied, well my partner is in the bathroom. The Mater de then said, oh when he returns, I have a nice romantic table for two in the corner for you.

From that point forward we always introduce ourselves as this is my business partner.

So Patti, as Steve's business partner I feel uniquely qualified to give you a few pointers.

Steve's best thinking is done in the shower

If Steve comes into the office or wherever you are seated after his shower thinking just sit back and let him run. Kind of like fishing. Let that fish run for a while until he starts to get tired. He'll be the first to tell you he has a lot of ideas some will stick and most won't.

Some people say people resemble their dogs or visa versa, well not Steve's. Murry has long hair and is very shy. We know that's about as opposite of Steve as can be.

Pinot Noir on the other hand can be a finicky wine even when the winemaker does everything right.

Steve is honest, principled, integrity, quick wit, loyal

Sometimes Steve can be a little rough around the edges but Patti, I can assure you there is no one you want having your back other than Steve

Steve's driving. Patti, you are right, Mary insists that I drive when the four of us r together. Steve used to be a cab driver when he lived in New York. Well that spirit never left him

If you are looking to sit still and just veg all weekend, get over it. Steve's a mover and shaker and is probably the most social guy I know as seen here having your many friends supporting and rejoicing, that Steve has finally got married.

Pinot noir is a very fickle wine and can have a range of flavors (personalities) California Pinot what Steve mostly drinks are bigger, lush

Steve is a terrific negotiator and drives a hard bargain.

He loves family and is gaga about his two granddaughters

Passion for the arts, very creative

Thinks out fo the box, wear your seat belt

Very generous

Steve's been at all of my kids bar and bat mitzvahs

When we look at properties nothing stops Steve, Steve is able to leap tall fences. Climb through windows.

One time we were looking at a property and there were 6 or 7 thugsters in front of a property that we were considering a loan. Steve said to me, here you dial 911 and if you see it not going well, push send quickly.

Patti goes with the flow

Adventurous travels Patti you and me are kind of alike.

Steve is the bold fruit forward finicky type and you and me just kind of go with the flow. Until we don't
