

Agenda
Chicago Pilot Program: National Day of Multicultural Inclusion
Yale Alumni Association

Thursday, October 19, 2017

5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Central Daylight Time

Chicago Sinai Congregation

15 W Delaware Pl, Chicago, IL 60610

- I. Reception (5:30 p.m. – 6:15 p.m. CDT)
- II. Welcome (6:30 p.m. – 6:40 p.m. CDT)
Rabbi Seth M. Limmer, Chicago Sinai Congregation, and Tiffany Amlot, President, Yale Chicago
- III. Opening Remarks (6:40 p.m. – 6:50 p.m. CDT)
Dr. Akosua Barthwell Evans, Yale Law School, Class of 1990, Yale Alumni Association Board of Governors, Yale Alumni Association Diversity and Inclusion Task Force
 - A. Purpose of the Roundtable Discussion
 - B. Introduction of Roundtable Discussants
 - C. Recognition of Yale Chicago Alumni Planning Committee
 - D. Format
- IV. National Perspective: Challenges and Promising Best Practices (6:50 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. CDT)
Cornell W. Brooks, Yale Law School, Class of 1990, Former President and CEO, NAACP, Visiting Professor of Social Ethics, Law, and Justice Movements, Boston University School of Law, Visiting Fellow and Director of Campaigns and Advocacy Program, Institute of Politics at Harvard University
- V. Chicago Perspective: Challenges and Promising Best Practices (7:00 p.m. – 7:10 p.m. CDT)
Rabbi Seth M. Limmer, Chicago Sinai Congregation
- VI. Roundtable Discussants' Perspectives: Challenges and Promising Best Practices (7:10 p.m. – 7:25 p.m. CDT)
Lisa Morrison Butler, Commissioner, the Department of Family and Support Services, Frank Giardina, Senior Advisor, Sinatra and Company Real Estate, and Bevon Joseph, Founder and President, the Greenwood Project
- VII. Roundtable Discussion (7:25 p.m. – 7:45 p.m. CDT)
Dr. Akosua Barthwell Evans, Facilitator
 - A. What are the causes of tensions in our country?
 - B. What are the causes of tensions in Chicago?
 - C. How can we collaborate to create summer job opportunities for underrepresented youth in Chicago and work to reduce these tensions?
- VIII. Q&A from the Audience (7:45 p.m. – 7:55 p.m. CDT)
- IX. Closing Statements and Wrap-Up (7:55 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. CDT)
Dr. Akosua Barthwell Evans and the Roundtable Discussants