

2014 Maryland Gubernatorial Forum: Housing and Community Development

Maryland Community Action Partnership (MCAP) has partnered with a state-wide Host Committee lead by the Community Development Network of Maryland to host an exciting event, a nonpartisan Housing and Community Development Forum with Maryland's Gubernatorial Candidates on May 12, 2014 from 3-5 pm in the Cameo Ballroom at TurfValley in Ellicott City, Maryland. All candidates listed on the Maryland State Board of Elections website were invited to participate. A Meet and Greet the Candidates Reception will immediately follow. Seats for the forum are free to the public.

The goal of the forum is to educate the audience on the views each candidate has regarding various topics related to community development, which could include, but are not limited to, poverty, affordable housing, homelessness, "mainstreets", how community development creates jobs and opportunities, the state's role in community development, and others.

Host Committees Members Include:

- (MCAP) Maryland Community Action Partnership
- (CDN) Community Development Network of Maryland
- Enterprise Community Partners, Inc.
- Maryland Affordable Housing Coalition
- HAND – Housing Association of Nonprofit Developers (DC Region)
- Homeless Person's Representation Project
- Anne Arundel Affordable Housing Coalition (Anne Arundel County)
- CPHA – Citizens Planning and Housing Association (Baltimore Region)
- TRF- The Reinvestment Fund

Candidates confirmed as of 4/8/2014 are:

- Anthony Brown (D)
- Doug Gansler (D)
- Charles Lollar (R)
- Heather Mizeur (D)
- Cindy Walsh (D)

Please Register Online at:

<http://communitydevelopmentmd.org>

Registration Deadline: April 25, 2014

For more information please contact Odette Ramos at 443-801-8137 or oramos@strategicmgmt.net