

Story Structure

Beginning What is/What was What was the result of your initial 360 assessment? Be vulnerable by sharing your leadership blind spots and specific examples of where you were not being the best leader.	Middle What did you learn and apply Include contrast and tension between what was and what could be. Your old leadership approach versus a new approach you tried from the program. Include 1-2 specific concepts that resonated most with you from the program and specific actions you took to apply the new mindset, skills, or tools.	End Resolution/Call to action What was the result of the actions you took? Did engagement, productivity, or efficiency increase? What is the one key leadership lesson you want the audience to remember? How are you continuing your leadership development?
---	--	--

Jup

ORT